

It's in Cilento's National Park

FORIA

Foria is a small , quiet , ancient village in the South of Italy . In the centre of the village we' ve got a church , one bar , two squares and an arcade . There is a car park and behind there is the primary school . In the High Street there is a post office , a petrol station and a bus stop . In Foria there are some shops . There is a big Park five minutes from the village centre . There are four B&Bs . There are four historic fountains and a medieval convent.

The Church S. Maria delle Grazie. The building dates back to 1600. In 1954 was added the Tower bell.

