

In Palinuro you can enjoy your time in the local entertainments and have delicious dishes in the local restaurant. You can't miss “spaghetti Palinuro”.

Primula Palinuri,
the Cilento's
National Park symbol, grows here!

PALINURO

Palinuro is a small sea-side village. It's name is linked to the poet Publio Virgilio Marone who wrote about the famous boatman palinuro in his Eneide. The place according to the legend, Takes its name from the boatman who fell in the sea just in these waters.

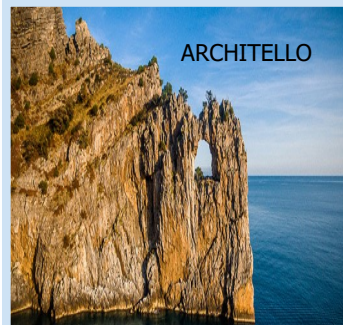

Palinuro has got a lot of natural attractions for example The Blue Cave, The Natural Arch, The Architello created by the slow wind erosion,

NATURAL ARCH

ARCHITELLO

The beaches are beautiful and sandy like Baia Del Buon Dormire.

The Scoglio Del Coniglio, a rock that looks like a rabbit.

